

If a child should become ill during the daycare time, with a temperature or anything that we feel could be detrimental to the child or other children, we will notify the parent(s) to pick up their child.

We ask that if you should have a change in work numbers or other emergency numbers or contacts, please notify us so that our records are current in case of an emergency.